

Daily Herald

political

Nagy's
post-mortems

ust (untrue)
alking points?

- Sports

1.com

Tuesday, November 12, 2019

3 • EMPLOYEE-OWNED

148TH YEAR • NO. 29

ington Hts. cook's curry dish is the

KAUSKAS

ld.com

eredith of Arlington Heights tery ingredients" she would t Monday night's Cook of the finale, Indian cuisine sprang an. Do you really think that's a nother said.

go,
ith ing
len ier

in-up

o do with ground beef, skhug nfused nondairy butter and she and her helper made a curry and a vegetarian caulied with rice and freshly made

PATRICK KUNZER/pkunzer@dailyherald.com

Leslie Meredith's platter with beef curry and a vegetarian cauliflower curry, served with rice and freshly made piece of roti flatbread won the Cook of the Week Challenge finale.

piece of roti flatbread.

"I am so impressed with you making the roti from scratch," said judge Suzy Singh, a research and development chef for NOW Foods. "This is something you could find on the streets of India in a dhaba (food stall)."

Meredith said some personal problems have made the last month one of the most difficult

See FINALE on PAGE 7

PATRI

Leslie Meredith of Arlington Heights reacts after she is named t Challenge winner Monday at the Westin in Itasca. With her, from Chapa of Volo, Lisa Eberhahn of Mount Prospect and Ann Wayne

ll v a
of
ing
er?

SMALL SACRIFICES TO SALUTE VETERANS

It was unpleasant outside this Veterans Day, but people organizing events in the suburbs found a way, whether outside or inside, to honor those who've sacrificed.

SEE MORE PICTURES AT DAILYHERALD.COM/GALLERIES

PAUL VALADE/pvalade@dailyherald.com

Arlington VFW Post 981 color guard Commander Dale Berg of Arlington Heights salutes during Monday's Veterans Day ceremony hosted by the VFW post and Buffalo Grove Park District at the Community Arts Center in Buffalo Grove.